And the chair called upon Senator French and Senator Jameson to conduct the president to the chair.

The president, having assumed the chair, addressed the Senate as follows :

Senators :

I am very grateful to you for this signal mark of your confidence and esteem. I realize fully the responsibilities of this important office, and I confidently rely on your kind co-operation to aid me in the discharge of its duties. I certainly bring to the position an earnest and sincere desire to treat every one with entire fairness and impartiality, and I hope and trust that in this respect, at least, you will have no cause to regret your choice.

With heartfelt thanks for your kindness and generosity, I await the pleasure of the Senate.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the Senate proceeded to ballot for clerk, with the following result :

Whole number of votes	21

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

CONCORD, July 13, 1887.

To the Honorable Senate :

I transmit herewith the bank commissioners' forty-second annual report, also the proceedings at the dedication of the statue of Daniel Webster.

CHARLES H. SAWYER, Governor.

The president announced that said reports would be referred as follows :

To the Committee on Banks :

The report of the bank commissioners.

To the Committee on Judiciary :

The official proceedings at the dedication of the statue of Daniel Webster, June 17, 1886.

The following message was received from the House of Representatives by their clerk :

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives concur with the honorable Senate in their amendment to the following entitled House bill :

An act to enable the town of Plymouth to raise and appropriate money to repair highways in said town.

The House have passed the following entitled Senate bill, with amendments, in the passage of which amendments they ask the concurrence of the Senate :

An act to regulate the hours of labor and the employment of women and children in manufacturing and mechanical establishments.

Amend the bill by striking out the word "if" in the ninth line of section 1, and inserting in place thereof the word "is," so that said clause shall read, "except when it is necessary to make repairs to prevent the interruption of the ordinary running of the machinery, or when a different apportionment of the hours of labor is made for the sole purpose of making a shorter day's work for one day of the week."

Amend further by striking out lines fourteen to twenty-seven, inclusive, of section 2, so that said section shall read :

"Section 2. Every employer shall post in a conspicuous place, in every room where such persons are employed, a notice printed in plain, large type, stating the number of hours' work required of them each day of the week, the exact time for commencing work in the morning, stopping at noon for dinner, commencing after dinner, and stopping at night, and the employment of any such person for a longer time in any day than that so stated in said notice shall be deemed a violation of section 1 of this act, unless it appears that such employment is to make up for time lost on some previous day of the same week, in consequence of the stopping of machinery upon which such person was employed or dependent for employment."

Amend further by striking out the words "one hundred dollars" in the thirteenth line of section 3, and substituting therefor the words "twenty-five dollars or imprisonment for thirty days, or both," so that the last clause in said section shall read, "Whoever falsely makes and utters such a certificate, with an intention to evade the provisions of this act, shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars or imprisonment for thirty days, or both."

Amend further by striking out all after the word "after" in section 5, and inserting instead thereof the words "its passage," so that said section shall read :

"Section 5. All acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage."

Resolved, That the bill ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and, on motion of Senator French, the bill was laid on the table.

The Committee on Elections, to whom was referred the petition of John F. Hall, praying for a recount of the ballots cast for senator in the twelfth or Somersworth Senatorial District, at the general election holden November 2, 1886, having considered the same, are unanimous in the following statement of facts :

That the Somersworth Senatorial District comprises the towns of Somersworth, Rochester, Farmington, and Milton, and that the vote for senator in these several towns, as returned by the several town clerks to the office of the secretary of state, was as follows :

John F. Hall received in Somersworth 379 votes ; in Rochester, 788 votes ; in Farmington, 480 votes, and in Milton, 96 votes ; a total of 1,743 votes.

Charles H. Looney received in Somersworth 484 votes ; in Rochester, 584 votes ; in Farmington, 383 votes, and in Milton, 235 votes ; a total of 1,686 votes.

Nathaniel Burnham received in Somersworth 15 votes; in Rochester, 32 votes; in Farmington, 10 votes; in Milton, 8 votes; a total of 65 votes.

The committee further find that the votes cast for senator in the Somersworth district were counted and declared as above, and that upon a canvass of the returns the legislative committee found the result as above stated, and further found that there was no choice of senator by the voters of the district, and that the Senate and House in joint convention proceeded to vote for the two constitutional candidates, and made choice of Charles H. Looney, who was duly sworn and qualified, and continues to occupy a seat in the Senate.

The petition of John F. Hall asserts that the vote for senator in the Somersworth District was counted and declared as above stated, and prays for a recount of the ballots cast. Mr. Hall having neglected to present any evidence that the votes were not correctly counted and returned, and no evidence of any nature having been presented to question the accuracy of the foregoing record of the vote cast, a majority of the committee are of the opinion that a recount of the ballots at this time is unnecessary and inexpedient.

We, therefore, report the following resolution :

Resolved, That the petitioners have leave to withdraw.

HENRY A. BAILEY.

EZRA S. STEARNS.

E. H. GILMAN.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on Elections, to whom was referred the petition of John F. Hall of Farmington, with the accompanying paper, asking for a recount of votes cast for senator in the Twelfth Senatorial District on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1886, having considered the same, report the same with the following resolution :

Resolved, That the chairman of the Committee on Elections be, and hereby is, instructed to obtain the ballots cast for senator in the Twelfth Senatorial District, at the election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1886, as provided in section 1 of chapter 1 of the laws passed at the June Session of the Legislature, 1881; and that said Committee on Elections is hereby instructed to count said ballots immediately, and report the result to the Senate.

FRANK M. ROLLINS.

SAMUEL E. PAINE.

Senator Rollins moved that the report of the minority be accepted and substituted for that of the majority of the committee, and upon this question demanded the yeas and nays.

CHARLES H. HERSEY,

For the Committee.

A majority of the Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred the House bill No. 125, entitled "An act to prevent the adulteration of lard," having considered the same, reported the same with the following resolution :

Resolved, That the bill be indefinitely postponed.

CHARLES H. LOONEY.

EZRA S. STEARNS.

CHARLES S. GEORGE.

NATHAN C. JAMESON.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on Agriculture, being unable to agree with the report of the majority of the committee, on House bill No. 125, entitled "An act to prevent the adulteration of lard," asks leave to present a minority report as follows :

Believing that the well-known enormous and shameful adulterations of lard, an article of daily consumption in every family in New Hampshire, call for the most stringent legislation for its suppression, the minority believes that the so-called lard, made of various compounds, should bear a stamp indicative of its true character ; and that to permit its sale in this State as "pure," "refined," or "family lard," which are counterfeit terms, is detrimental to the public morals, inasmuch as it encourages dishonesty, and puts a premium upon fraud ; that it is damaging to the interests of every manufacturer of pure lard, and vender of the same, and detrimental especially to the interests of the farmers of the State ; that it is an imposition on the consumers of lard, who have a right to receive the article for which they pay their money. Therefore, the minority of the committee earnestly recommend that this report be adopted by the honorable Senate, and that the bill be passed.

LEONARD A. MORRISON.

Senator Morrison moved that the report of the minority be accepted and substituted for that of the majority.

The question being stated,

Shall the motion prevail ?

(Discussion ensued.)

Agreeable to notice given Thursday, July 28, Senator Jameson presented the following protest, which the president ordered to be entered on the Journal.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

SENATE, September 7, A. D. 1887.

Protest of Nathan C. Jameson and other senators against the resolution adopted by the Senate in the matter of the petition of John F. Hall for a recount of votes cast in the Twelfth Senatorial District.

The undersigned, senators of the State of New Hampshire, respectfully protest against the resolution reported by a majority of the committee on elections, and adopted by the Senate, in the matter of the petition of John F. Hall of Farmington, with the accompanying paper, asking for a recount of the votes cast for senator in Senatorial District No. 12, at the election held the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1886, viz. :

Resolved, That the petitioner have leave to withdraw, and we offer this protest, with the reasons for our dissent, to be entered on the Journal of the senate.

At the election held in said Twelfth Senatorial District on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1886, the ballots cast and given in for senator, as reported to the secretary of state, were as follows: Nathaniel Burnham had 65 votes, Charles H. Looney had 1,686 votes, and John F. Hall had 1,743 votes.

On the 28th day of December, 1886, being within sixty days of said election, John F. Hall, a candidate for whom votes were cast at said election, availed himself of the right conferred by section 40, chapter 57, of the laws passed June Session, 1879, which is as follows :

“Section 40. The said town clerk shall carefully keep such packages or envelopes, and the ballots therein so delivered, in the same condition and unopened, for sixty days after such election, and shall, at the request in writing made within said sixty days, by any person for whom a ballot shall have been cast at said election and so recorded, send to the secretary of state the package or envelope aforesaid, containing the ballot or ballots given in for such person ; and the secretary of state shall preserve said package or envelope, and the ballots therein, until otherwise ordered by the Legislature,”—and notified the several town clerks of the several towns in said Twelfth Senatorial District, being the towns of Rochester, Somersworth, Milton, and Farmington, as required by said section, to forward to the office of the secretary of state the ballots actually cast and given in for senator at said election.

Said town clerks having complied with this request, and forwarded the ballots as provided by this section, said ballots being in the office of the secretary of state, and subject to examination and recount as provided in section 1, chapter 1, of the Session Laws of 1881, which is as follows, viz. :

“Section 1. The secretary of state, upon the order, in writing, of the supreme court or any justice thereof, the chairman of the committee of elections of the Senate or House of Representatives, or other proper authority, shall produce before said court, committee, or authority, such package or packages of votes as may be in his custody pursuant to the provisions of chapter 57, section 40, of the laws passed at the June Session, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, as may be specified in said order, and, in the presence of said court, committee, or authority, may open the same and permit said votes to be examined. Upon the conclusion of such examination, the secretary of state shall replace said votes in the original package and enclose the same in another package to be by him sealed, upon which said secretary shall certify, in writing, when, where, and upon what order said original package was opened and examined, and thereafter lodge the same in his office for safe keeping."

On the first Wednesday of June, 1887, upon the assembling of the Senate, a petition was presented to the Senate in behalf of said John F. Hall, and signed by him, of which the following is a copy, viz. :

"STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

"To the Honorable Senate :

"Your petitioner, John F. Hall, of Farmington, in said State, respectfully represents to this honorable Senate, that at the last general election in New Hampshire, holden on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 1886, he was a candidate for senator in District No. 12 in said State, the same being the Somersworth district ; that from the return of the town clerks of the towns of Farmington, Milton, Rochester, and Somersworth, comprised in said senatorial district, now in the office of the secretary of state, it appears that Charles H. Looney had 1,686 votes, Nathaniel Burnham had 65 votes, and your petitioner, John F. Hall, had 1,743 votes ; that on the twenty-eighth day of December, 1886, and within sixty days of said general election, your petitioner caused to be served on the town clerks of said towns original notices, of which the accompanying is a true copy, requesting said clerks to forward to the secretary of state the packages or envelopes containing the ballot or ballots cast for senator in their several towns at said general election. Your petitioner is informed and believes that his said request has been complied with, and said ballots have been forwarded, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 57, section 40, of the Laws of New Hampshire, passed June Session, 1879, and are now in the office of the secretary of state. Your petitioner further believes, and has cause to believe, that a recount of said ballots will show that a majority, as cast at said election, were cast for him for senator in said District No. 12.

"Wherefore your petitioner prays of this honorable Senate a recount of said ballots, under the statute in such cases made and provided.

"June 1, 1887.

"JOHN F. HALL."

On the same day, when the Senate met the House of Representatives in joint convention for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Senate, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and proceeded to fill this alleged vacancy in said Twelfth Senatorial District, as appeared from the tabulated returns, notice was given in the joint convention, of this demand for a recount of ballots, and a statement of the facts made, in order that said John F. Hall might not be estopped nor lose any of his rights by reason of the neglect to recount said ballots in the secretary of state's office, previous to the filling by the joint convention of the alleged vacancy, or by reason of such election by the convention.

We believe that said John F. Hall, having faithfully complied with the statutes in such case made and provided and recited above, was entitled to have said ballots recounted in order to verify the returns, and ascertain beyond doubt whether a majority of votes in the Twelfth Senatorial District were cast for him for senator, at the election mentioned.

We believe that the adoption of this resolution, thereby refusing to recount said ballots, is entirely contrary to the letter and spirit of the above-mentioned statute, and thwarts the expressed and reasonable meaning of the same.

We believe this statute was enacted for verifying or correcting the returns in just such cases as this, and ascertaining who was actually elected, or what number of votes were cast for any particular person or persons, in order that the people might be fairly and properly represented in the respective branches of the Legislature.

We believe the nullification of laws enacted for a specific purpose, as in this instance, is dangerous to the welfare of the State, and directly detrimental to the interests of the people.

We believe the refusal of this Senate to recount these ballots establishes a precedent, which if followed will be dangerous to the highest prerogatives of American citizenship under a republican form of government.

We believe that this refusal is a great injustice to John F. Hall, and a still greater injustice to the people of said Twelfth Senatorial District, in that they are deprived of the right to have the actual result of their voting ascertained by a recount, which right is guaranteed to them by the statutes above quoted.

For these reasons we respectfully protest against this action of the Senate as expressed in the adoption of this resolution, deeming it directly subversive of the written law of the State in such case made and provided, and a fatal attack upon those fundamental principles of government upon which rest all security for personal rights.

And the question being stated,

Shall the pending amendment proposed by Senator George be adopted?

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator French, the following amendment was adopted :

Amend the bill by striking out section 2.

The bill was then ordered to a third reading at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

MAJORITY REPORT.

A majority of the special committee of the Senate, to whom was referred the privileged communication of Hon. Oliver D. Sawyer, a member of this body, alleging that on Wednesday, August 31, an attempt to bribe him was made by Kirk D. Pierce, having attended to the duty with which they were charged, present the following report :

1. The committee has heard all the evidence presented. At the invitation of the committee the Senate attended the continued hearings, and, with the committee, listened to the arguments of the counsel. Mindful that we are servants of the people, representatives of the press have been admitted to all the hearings, and by order of the Senate a competent stenographer has been employed, and a verbatim report of the testimony has been printed.

The committee make no pretension to superior wisdom and have no exclusive knowledge in the premises. We approach conclusions on equal terms with our associates of the Senate.

At the outset, it is apparent to all that the testimony of Senator Sawyer and of Mr. Pierce cannot be reconciled upon any theory or supposition concerning the thought and speech of the parties. That there was not a mutual understanding of the weight and importance of the words employed is possible. To each we extend the advantage of every doubt. Upon our construction of the testimony, and in our opinion, Hon Oliver D. Sawyer is justified in the conclusion that it was the intent of Mr. Pierce to tender a bribe. We have confidence in his integrity, and accept his testimony as a truthful statement of the speech of Mr. Pierce, as he understood it. In regard to subsequent associations detailed in the testimony, we hold him blameless.

2. In the mind of many the fact that Kirk D. Pierce was a member of a paid lobby discounts his own defence in advance. Admitting for a moment the "stupendous joke" of his testimony, we find him blamable for any mention of money in any conversation with a member of the Legislature concerning his vote upon a pending question. Such conversations, even if conducted in a jocular manner, are liable to be construed as an outer fortification preliminary to a more serious attack. We find, however, that there was no suggestion nor evidence that Mr. Pierce was authorized by any railroad corporation or by any person whatever, to approach Mr. Sawyer or any member of the Legislature with any promises of reward or corrupt solicitation.

3. In the opinion of the committee, it is unnecessary to review the testimony in detail. A verbatim report is in the hands of the Senate. Referring to the testimony covering the first and second days of September, we do find that Senator Sawyer was not an original member of the party who visited Sunapee Lake, and, in our opinion, his visit there was entirely independent of the presence of the other gentlemen who are named in the evidence. We further find that his meetings and association with Mr. Pierce at the lake were accidental, and not of his seeking. The allegation of Samuel K. Page on page 68 of the printed evidence demands attention. The charge contained in the allegation of this witness, if true, is serious. Upon this point we are unanimously of the opinion that the language imputed to Senator Sawyer was not uttered by him, and that the evidence upon this point is a fabrication.

The testimony secured and published by the committee is limited to the conversation and the relations between a member of the Senate and a person representing interests pending before the Legislature. The true situation is more fruitful of suggestions than of established facts. Amid ample surroundings, the committee has labored in a limited field. This case will be justly regarded by the public as a representative expression of the baneful and illegitimate influences surrounding the Legislature at the present time. It is painfully admitted that mercenary men, denominated the lobby, equal in ability, superior in number, and exceeding in activity the Legislature, have gathered about the Capitol like carrion birds, to fatten on the decay of public morals. Ignoring their duties as citizens, spurning the interests of the State, and heeding only with sickening alacrity the proffered promises of a paltry reward, they hang around the Capitol, penetrating the corridors, boldly entering the halls of legislation, and clinging like barnacles upon the ears of a wearied and persecuted audience. The influences, the inspirations, and the methods of the lobby work havoc and desolation upon honest intentions, and worse, to any unfortunate and vulnerable man who falls within its greedy power. For a vote, the good name of an honest man is freely exchanged; and for an advantage to their cause, a well-earned character is assailed.

The assembled lobby is not only a disgrace to the State and a perpetual irritation to all honest men, but it is as well a cancerous sore upon itself. It breeds corruption and dishonorable practices within itself. Even when joined in a common cause, a reasonable confidence is not maintained between the principal and his cohorts. For money fraudulently obtained, the lobby sells the reputation of an honest man. They bank upon the even chance that a certain member will vote for a pending measure, and, if that member, with purest motives, by his vote unconsciously sustains the scheme, the lobby secures the money upon the wicked allegation that the honest member has been bribed. At once the master and the victim have been betrayed. The lobby has been enriched, but an innocent man has suffered an irreparable injury.

This state of affairs will exist as long as rival interests seeking a hearing in the halls of Legislature continue to fortify their petitions with the influence of paid retainers. Legislation should be deliberate, and our laws must not be poisoned at the fountain. While such influences attend the inception of our statutes not only will legislation fail, but soon our executive and judicial departments will rest upon an unsafe foundation. Only force of character and faithfulness of the legislators can protect the people, whose servants they are, from these vitiating and corroding influences. If in any walk in life argument is sharpened with promises, reason lured with lucre, or merchandise made of morals, let us preserve a wholesome atmosphere around the Capitol of our beloved State, and let the integrity of our fathers continue to surround the halls of legislation, that our laws may never be polluted at their inception, nor men with good intentions be lured from a faithful discharge of a public trust.

EZRA S. STEARNS.

B. FRANK NEALLEY.

LYCURGUS PITMAN.

I agree with the above findings as to the main question ; and, while heartily in accord with the general sentiment expressed in the latter part of this report, dissent from the superfluity of language and expression.

NATHAN C. JAMESON.

MINORITY REPORT.

As a minority of the special committee to whom was referred the communication of Hon. Oliver D. Sawyer, charging Kirk D. Pierce with an attempted bribery, I beg leave to submit the following report :

I regret exceedingly that I am obliged to disagree with my associates in the conclusions at which they have arrived, but after a careful consideration of the evidence presented to us I find that I cannot do otherwise, and I will, as briefly as I can, state the reasons for my dissent.

The testimony in the case is very brief, outside the evidence adduced by the defence in regard to the visit to Sunapee lake, and this, in my opinion, has little bearing upon the case, with the exception, perhaps, of that relating to Mr. Pierce's morning visit to the summer residence of Senator Sawyer, and even this, possibly, may be reconciled with the truth of the accusation, though I cannot help thinking that, to say the least, the honorable senator was carrying the courtesies of hospitality to the last extreme when, smarting under the insult of an offered bribe, he voluntarily and unnecessarily gave the man who had offered the insult an opportunity for its repetition, while General Corse, the guest whom he meant to honor, sat or walked by himself alone.

We have had the assistance of able and astute counsel upon each side, who have used their best endeavors, undoubtedly, to lay before us all the facts within their knowledge which could have any bearing upon the case; but, after all their efforts, the decision of the question must be made up mainly from the testimony of the accuser and the accused. This is very brief. Their accounts of what occurred at their meeting of August 31, if that was the day, are substantially different, one, in fact, constituting a denial of the other. The solution of the question is not easy, for any view which may be taken of it is full of difficulty. If it is taken for granted from the first that the accused man is guilty, and that, in order to prove that fact, it is only necessary for a senator to plead his privilege and prefer charges, then, most certainly, this investigation is a meaningless and unnecessarily expensive proceeding. But I believe that this cannot be so, neither do I believe that the statement of a senator establishes a case, which must stand unless rebutted and overcome by stronger and more convincing testimony, and I see no reason why this matter should not be determined upon the just consideration and weight of the evidence precisely as other cases are decided.

The rule laid down by our courts for the decision of civil causes is that there must be a preponderance of evidence on the part of the plaintiff to entitle him to recover, and in a criminal case the guilt of the respondent must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt in order to convict him. Measuring the evidence in this case by either of these rules, Senator Sawyer has, in my opinion, failed to maintain his charge against Mr. Pierce. His statement stands alone, unsupported, except in unimportant details, either by other testimony or by the circumstances of the case, while it is denied by Mr. Pierce in every substantial particular; and this is the condition of the evidence upon which we are called on to make our decision. It may be said that, in weighing this evidence and deciding this case, we are bound by no rules, and this, perhaps, in one sense, may be true. It may be said, also, that on the one side there is an honorable senator, and on the other a private and comparatively unknown citizen. To both these objections I reply that the charge is a serious one. Its result may be far-reaching in its consequences to the accused, and, however humble a citizen he may be, he still has his rights when brought for trial before the bar of this Senate charged with the commission of a heinous offence, and I consider the rule, by which so trivial a matter as the payment of money is decided, is none too strict to employ in the determination of a case of such gravity as this, and, however unembarrassed by rules of law we may feel ourselves to be, we are yet bound to obey the common dictates of human justice.

Judging the statements of the two parties, by whatever light may be thrown upon them by the surrounding circumstances and conditions, the probabilities do not sufficiently corroborate the testimony of the honorable senator to give it a preponderance over that of the man whom he accuses. We expect a crime of this character,—like other crimes,—to be committed under circumstances of the most guarded secrecy. This offer of a bribe, if made at all, was made in a much frequented room, with its wide open door leading into a public corridor of the State House. The senator was called from the place of his public duty by the sergeant-at-arms, and a deliberate attempt made to influence his vote upon a measure not pending before the body of which he is a member, and which may never come up for decision there. There is not a scintilla of evidence that Kirk D. Pierce was authorized by any one to make such an offer, and scarcely an intimation that he was under pay himself, and it does not seem probable to me that he would, in sober earnest, and in this deliberate and open manner, lay himself liable to this grave charge by offering a bribe which he knew he could not pay if it were accepted. It is shown, moreover, by the evidence that Kirk D. Pierce was interested in the passage of another bill, relating to the adulteration of lard, in regard to which he had interviewed the senator on the morning of the day on which the alleged offer was made. It is scarcely to be presumed from the evidence, it seems to me, that Pierce would have so far jeopardized the interests of that bill as to run the risk of arousing the anger and opposition of the senator by the offer of a bribe for his vote in favor of the Hazen bill, when it was well known that he was then and had always been a pronounced adherent of the Concord Railroad, unless in previous conversations he had found the senator open to offers in favor of the lard bill, a supposition which it is impossible for a moment to entertain.

These considerations, I repeat, do not strengthen the evidence against the accused, but, it seems to me, have a precisely contrary effect. I do not wish it understood that I affirm that either party to this unfortunate affair has falsified. I cannot say, and I should be very sorry to think that an honorable senator has risen to a question of privilege upon this floor and stated, as a basis of his grievance, that which is not true. I believe, further, that we should defend the dignity and honor of this body by all legitimate means, and should not hesitate to set the seal of our condemnation and abhorrence, when it can possibly be done, most clearly and emphatically upon any attempt to corrupt this body. An attempt to unduly influence one senator is a matter which interests us all. But I do not believe that our honor, our dignity, or our rights render us so far superior to other citizens of the State as to place our statements outside the common rules of evidence applicable to the rights of all before the law, and I feel that it would not reflect credit upon the dignity or sagacity of this body to find a charge of this kind established upon evidence which, if presented to our courts, could never secure the conviction of the accused.

In view of these facts and considerations, I am forced to say that, in my opinion, the honorable senator has not sustained his allegations against Mr. Pierce. It is needless for me to say that it is with deep pain that I thus state my conclusion. Nothing but a sense of the imperative obligation resting upon me to honestly and fearlessly discharge a disagreeable duty could impel me to do so. I do it with the knowledge that the public are as fully cognizant of the nature of the evidence, through the printed notes of the stenographer, as I am myself.

The duty devolving upon this committee has been a difficult and unpleasant one. I do not doubt but that each member has given utterance to his convictions in the report which he has signed, for I am willing to accord to each the same honesty of purpose which I feel has actuated me. I hope I may be allowed to say that I consider it exceedingly unfortunate that the honorable senator, in presenting this matter to the attention of the Senate, allowed himself to be urged on against his own better judgment by the advice of over-zealous partisans in the bitter struggle now raging before the Legislature, and was thus impelled to pursue a course which, in any event, I am forced to believe is contrary and inimical to his own best interests.

CHARLES H. HERSEY.

On motion of Senator French, both the majority and minority reports were laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the Senate adjourned.

establishment of railroad corporations by general law,''' having considered the same, reported the same with the following resolution :

Resolved, That the bill ought to pass.

JAMES E. FRENCH.
DEXTER RICHARDS.
ROBERT C. CARR.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred House bill No. 28, entitled "An act in amendment of chapter 100 of the Laws of 1883, entitled 'An act providing for the establishment of railroad corporations by general law,''' having considered the same, made the following report :

MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on Railroads, beg leave to report as follows :

We are opposed to the bill reported by the majority of the committee (the Hazen bill, so called) because, if adopted, its effect will be, in our judgment, to create a great railroad monopoly in New Hampshire for the long term of ninety-nine years, unless the conduct of the Boston & Maine managers, under its provisions, becomes so detrimental to the public good that the general court, after the lapse of thirty years, concludes to repeal the act and pass appropriate laws to put an end to the leases therein provided for.

The main object of the Hazen bill is to place about eight tenths of all the railroad mileage in this State under the control of one corporation, having a large majority of its stockholders, its officers, and its principal place of business without the State.

We believe in fair competition in the operation of railroads, as well as in other kinds of business. Experience has proved that people generally are better served in an open market, and where a natural and healthy competition exists, than at the hands of any railroad or other monopoly.

We oppose the Hazen bill because it proposes to consolidate, for ninety-nine years, parallel and competing railroad lines between various points in Northern New Hampshire and Boston, where all the New Hampshire through lines of railway come together. It has been the law of this State for more than twenty years that such lines shall not be united or operated by the same corporation. This bill practically nullifies the provisions of that statute and defeats its chief object and purpose.

It is beyond reasonable question that the object aimed at by the railroad legislation of 1883 was the union of four New Hampshire railroad corporations, viz., The Manchester & Lawrence, the Concord, the Northern, and the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroads and their branches, into one system; and the Boston & Maine and the Eastern railroads and their branches, into another system. Even such a bill was passed only by a small majority, after much opposition, with the six railroads in its favor.

We have no hesitation in declaring our firm belief that if the present scheme had come before the general court of 1883, both the Colby bill and the Hazen bill would have been defeated by a large majority. We are confident that a majority of the people of New Hampshire are now opposed to both bills. One of the chief purposes of the so-called Colby bill was to unite the four first-named railroads into the Central or Merrimack Valley system. Such a union, we believe, would be productive of lower fares and freights and better management than can be afforded by any other scheme, and also be for the best interests of New Hampshire people as well as the public generally. Nobody ventured to suggest the idea in 1883, that the provisions of the Colby act might or could be used as a cover to enable foreign corporations to get control of the Northern and Montreal railroads. The suggestion has been made that the directors of the Concord Railroad neglected to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them, to lease or unite with the upper roads by the terms of the Colby bill. But this assumption is shown to be incorrect. The Concord Railroad itself, for a period of eleven years ending in May, 1884, had been illegally managed and controlled by four directors, two elected by those controlling the Northern Railroad, and two by those controlling the Montreal Railroad, constituting a majority of the Concord board. In May, 1884, this illegal management and control of the Concord Railroad was broken up by the aid of the courts, and those lawfully holding Concord Railroad shares were, for the first time in eleven years, able to choose a full board of seven directors.

After that event, the desire of the directors of the upper roads to unite with the Concord road under the Colby bill, as they had asked the Legislature of 1883 to be allowed to do, appears to have subsided, and within a very few days the public was surprised to learn that these upper roads had been leased to the Boston & Lowell Railroad corporation. As might have been expected, litigation followed. New Hampshire stockholders in the Northern Railroad, protesting against this lease of their road to the Boston & Lowell, filed and prosecuted their bill in equity praying for its amendment, to a successful termination; and by a decree of the supreme court the lease of the Northern to the Boston & Lowell was adjudged void, and the road put back under the control of its own officers.

Pending this litigation, the stockholders of the Boston, Concord, & Montreal Railroad, with great unanimity, voted to take measures to test the legality of the lease of their road to the Boston & Lowell, and a suit was commenced for that purpose in Grafton county; but since the adverse result was announced in the case of the Northern road, the attorneys of the Boston & Lowell removed the cause into the United States circuit court, where it is still pending.

By the terms of the lease of the Boston & Lowell road to the Boston & Maine, the former corporation assigns and transfers, so far as it may legally do so, all its leased lines to the latter, and wherever, by force of the contract, or otherwise, it cannot lawfully make the transfer, it engages to operate the roads under the direction and for the benefit of the Boston & Maine, until such assignment and transfer may be legally accomplished. Pursuant to the understanding between these corporations, the Boston & Maine has assumed the burden of this contest before our Legislature, and the Hazen bill has been promoted in its interest and at its expense. The minority of your committee are strongly of the opinion that the Legislature ought not to pass any law the effect of which directly or indirectly may change or alter the standing of the parties before the court in the pending suit, the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad v. the Boston & Lowell Railroad corporation. It has long been a general principle obtaining in the legislative departments of our government, not to pass any law affecting the rights or standing of parties in any pending suit.

A provision is contained in the lease of the Boston, Concord & Montreal road to the Boston & Lowell, by which the lease is to become void, in case of any subletting or assignment thereof by the lessee without the written consent of the lessor, and it is difficult for us to see how the Boston & Maine road can take possession of and operate the Boston, Concord & Montreal road, even by employing the Lowell road as its agent or servant, without violating the provision referred to. In our judgment, the Legislature ought never to help either the Boston & Lowell or the Boston & Maine, or anybody else, to violate a solemn agreement of this character. It appears to us that the sole object of this long and expensive contest on the part of the Boston & Maine managers (assisted by the Boston & Lowell Railroad), who began this controversy before the Legislature, is to gratify the greed and ambition of a few individuals, who are attempting to manage high public trusts for their own personal advantage. Hence, we deem the Hazen bill unworthy a place on our statute books.

Another weighty reason why we think the general court ought not to adopt the Hazen bill is, that the Boston & Maine railroad exists by virtue of charters obtained in Maine, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts; and in practice that corporation, if it wants to increase its stock, or obtain other legislation, goes first to one legislature and, if refused, then to another, and finally to the other if necessary, until it succeeds in its purposes. It has been held in Massachusetts that a law of that State, authorizing an increase of its capital stock, will enable it to do so without the concurrence of New Hampshire or Maine. To-day, that corporation has outstanding 70,000 shares of stock, representing $7,000,000, only $2,750,000 of which has ever been authorized by the laws of New Hampshire. It now is in possession of the Eastern Railroad, and the Boston & Lowell, both of which corporations are heavily involved in debt. Besides, it has a large debt of its own. It is paying ten per cent dividends to its own stockholders. It has engaged to pay seven per cent for ten years, and eight per cent for eighty-nine years, on over $5,000,000 of stock in the Lowell road. By the terms of its leases, it is to pay interest on the indebtedness of the Eastern and Lowell roads. The stock and debt of these three corporations combined represent the enormous sum of $44,000,000 and upwards.

Now, the summer travel to and from the White Mountains, and the manufacture of lumber and other products of northern New Hampshire have been increasing of late with wonderful rapidity. Mr. Mellen, in his testimony before the House Railroad Committee, admitted an increase in the business of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad of $200,000 during the last two years. It is more than probable that road will continue to show a proportionate increase for the next twenty-five years or longer. The profit to the Boston & Lowell, or the Boston & Maine, if it should continue to hold control of these upper New Hampshire roads, for ninety-nine years, must necessarily be enormous, and the effect of these leases is to give this immense profit to foreign capitalists and the stockholders of foreign corporations. It will be practically taken out of New Hampshire industries, and the greater portion carried beyond the State. The situation of the Boston & Maine Railroad, and its opportunities for obtaining legislation in its own interests in Maine and Massachusetts, saying nothing of New Hampshire, and the facility with which it can obtain leases of other roads, especially in Maine and Massachusetts, give strong grounds for fearing that their object in trying to wrest the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad from the possession of its stockholders, and to maintain the hold the Boston & Lowell has got upon that property, is to enable its managers to use its earnings, not in substantial improvements along the line, but to devote these earnings to the payment of dividends on watered stock, and the improvement of their railway properties without the State.

An amendment was added in the House of Representatives providing that the general court may put an end to any lease executed under the Colby or Hazen bills, after the expiration of thirty years, if the public good demands it. We regard this as a singular and extraordinary provision. In the Hazen bill and the Colby bill (and the Atherton bill, as well as in all railroad charters) it is carefully provided that either act may be repealed at any time by any subsequent Legislature. It is impossible for us to see why any contract made or to be made, under these acts, ought not also to be abrogated whenever the Legislature shall think such abrogation called for by the public good. The framers of our constitution have provided that once in every seven years the sense of the people shall be taken upon the question whether or not our fundamental law shall be altered or amended. Surely the people, through their representatives, ought to have the right to break up any lease of our railroads made to a foreign or domestic corporation, with as much facility as they can change or alter the organic law of the State.

The withdrawal of the opposition of the Boston & Maine and the Boston & Lowell roads, at the last moment, to a reduction of fares to two cents per mile on the New Hampshire roads paying nine or ten per cent dividends, and the issuing of mileage tickets for five hundred miles, good to bearer, at the same rate, after the Hazen bill was amended by the addition of such amendments, does not, in our judgment, sufficiently improve that bill to warrant us in giving it our support. We favor such legislation, but want it unmixed with the evils of the Hazen bill. We favor the adoption of the Atherton bill, so called, which has been referred to the committee. This bill provides for the consolidation of the Concord and Boston, Concord & Montreal railroads into one new corporation, which shall be at all times subject to full and complete control by the Legislature. It also provides for the leasing of the Northern Railroad to the new corporation, if its owners desire it, at a rental of six per cent per annum on the par value of its capital stock; which is one per cent more for the first ten years than is provided for in the new lease of that road to the Boston & Lowell for the benefit of the Boston & Maine. This sum amounts to $30,000 per annum, or $300,000 to the stockholders (many of them citizens of New Hampshire) in ten years.

Again, the Concord Railroad has never increased its capital stock of $1,500,000 by the addition of a single share since its organization. It has never been in debt, by bond or mortgage. It has paid ten per cent in dividends for many years while charging lower rates for freights and passengers than any other road in New England. Even at these low rates, it is able to earn a considerable surplus each year, and hence is better prepared to improve the track, road-bed, stations, and equipments of these upper roads than either the Boston & Maine, the Boston & Lowell, or any other foreign corporation.

By the terms of the Atherton bill, after the union of the Concord and Boston, Concord & Montreal roads has been agreed to by a majority of the stockholders in each corporation, then, if requested, the two corporations must take immediate measures to build and complete within two years the Whitefield & Jefferson Railroad through the towns of Jefferson, Randolph, and Gorham to Berlin Falls; to extend the Pemigewasset Valley Railroad from its present terminus in Woodstock, through to Fabyans, and to build the Tilton & Belmont Railroad, thereby involving an outlay of several hundred thousand dollars in permanent, valuable, and taxable improvements in northern New Hampshire, and opening up for settlement and for manufacturing purposes large tracts of timbered and farm lands, now undeveloped and without railway facilities. A majority of the directors are to be citizens of this State. The principal place of business of the new corporation will necessarily be at Concord, a central and convenient place for the patrons of the road and the public.

The provisions against stock inflation and stock watering are believed to be carefully guarded and effectual.

The interest of the State in any surplus it may have or acquire is also provided for.

Entertaining the views we do, that we are sent here by our constituents to legislate, not in the special interest of any person or corporation, but for the good of all, we cannot think the passage of the Hazen bill will promote the public welfare. We therefore recommend its indefinite postponement. And for the reasons stated, and others which we have not had time to elaborate, we respectfully recommend the passage of the Atherton bill, so called, introduced by Senator Pitman, referred to this committee, and which accompanies this report.

FRANKLIN WORCESTER.

FRANK M. ROLLINS.

Senator Worcester moved that the minority report be accepted, and substituted for that of the majority of the committee.

The question being stated,

Shall the minority report be accepted, and substituted for that of the majority of the committee.

A division was taken, with the following result :

Seven senators voted in the affirmative, and thirteen senators voted in the negative.

Senator Nealley demanded the yeas and nays.

Roll-call pending.

(Discussion ensued.)

(Senator Nealley in the chair.)

Senator Rollins moved that the Senate adjourn.

Senator French rose to a point of order, that the roll-call upon the previous motion had been commenced, and that the motion of Senator Rollins, for that reason, was not in order.

The presiding officer (Senator Nealley) ruled that the roll-call upon the previous motion had not commenced, inasmuch as the senator whose name had been called by the clerk had not responded before the motion to adjourn was made, and that the motion of Senator Rollins was therefore in order.

The question being stated,

Will the Senate adjourn ?

(President Currier in the chair.)

Senator Rollins demanded the yeas and nays.

The affirmative prevailed, and the bill passed.

Upon motion of Senator French, the Senate took a recess until 10.05 o'clock this forenoon.

Upon re-assembling, Senator Sawyer rose to a question of privilege, and made the following statement :

Mr. President, I rise to a question of privilege, and desire to make a statement. On the sixth day of September I arose in my place as a senator of the State of New Hampshire, and solemnly charged that a person had offered to me a large pecuniary bribe to support railroad legislation, in the interests of a corporation, then pending before the House. In response to the charge then made by me, the matter was promptly referred to a special committee of this body, which committee, after due deliberation and investigation, made two reports on the subject ; four of the members reporting that the allegations made had been substantiated by proof, and the remaining member taking a different view of the matter. These reports were made on the twenty-first day of September, were laid upon the table, and have remained there ever since, notwithstanding the fact that my desire to have them acted upon has been well known by all the members of this Senate. On Thursday last, on motion of Senator Nealley, an attempt was made to take the reports from the table, but the motion was negatived by a vote of eleven yeas to twelve nays.

Now, Mr. President, while I have no intention to criticise or condemn the action of any individual senator, I do claim the privilege of saying that the joint action of this body in refusing to consider reports from one of its own committees was the most extraordinary parliamentary proceeding that has ever occurred in this State or country. My personal honor is at stake in this matter, and I have a right to ask that it be either vindicated or blackened ; that either the report that exonerates me or the one that practically condemns me should have been adopted by this body. It is not for me to undertake to dictate how any individual senator should have voted on this question, but it is my prerogative as a member of this body to say that on a matter of so grave importance, a matter involving the honor and integrity of one of its members, a hearing should have been given, and the matter squarely and honorably disposed of.

I have been branded in the newspapers as a corrupt and irresponsible man. My personal integrity has been assailed in the most brutal manner. My feelings are not so callous as to be beyond a hurt of this kind. My life is known to my friends, my neighbors, and my townsmen; it is known to the men who by their votes sent me here to represent them; they, as well as I, have rights in this matter, and in their behalf as well as my own, I protest against the treatment that has been accorded to me.

Mr. President, I wish here and now, in the most emphatic language possible, to repeat and re-affirm the statements that I made under oath. A distardly attempt was made to bribe me, and an equally dastardly attempt has been made to smirch my good name. Since that attempt, another honorable senator has testified under oath that he, too, was offered a bribe, and many members of the other House have sworn that they have been similarly approached by paid lobbyists.

These facts and circumstances justify me in entering a solemn protest against the action of the Senate in refusing to consider the reports of its committees. That action was unprecedented, so far as I know. To me it was a cruel and irreparable wrong, such as I had no reason to expect would be inflicted by my senatorial associates, and in justice to my own sense of honor I cannot sit calmly here and tacitly consent to what I feel was a great personal injustice. If our legislation is to be tainted with fraud, — if the crime of bribery is to be practised under the shadow of our halls of legislation, — if a great and powerful corporation is to be permitted without rebuke to violate law and tempt men to criminal acts, then, surely, the very foundations of our government are in danger.

We cannot afford to give our consent to such things; at any rate, I never shall give mine. Believing that a good name is better than riches, I shall endeavor in the future, as in the past, to justify the confidence and esteem of those who know me best, and, notwithstanding the extraordinary action of this body, the consciousness of my own rectitude will enable me to bear any burden that may here or elsewhere be unjustly placed upon me.

Senator Pitman offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee of the Senate be instructed to inquire into the report that the Hazen bill, so called, was engrossed prior to its passage.

The question being stated,

Shall the resolution be adopted?

The following message was received from His Excellency the Governor, by the Hon. A. B. Thompson, secretary of state :

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

CONCORD, October 26, 1887.

To the Honorable Senate :

I return herewith, Senate bill No. 78, entitled "An act to incorporate the Alliance Trust Company," without my signature. My objection lies in section 4 of the act, in which may be found the following words: "And all loan and trust companies chartered in this State shall be subject to taxation, according to the provisions of this section." A general law is thus incorporated in a private act, the impropriety of which is apparent.

CHARLES H. SAWYER, Governor.

The question being stated,

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives concur with the honorable Senate in the passage of the following entitled Senate bill, with an amendment, in the passage of which amendment they ask the concurrence of the honorable Senate :

An act to ratify and confirm the lease of the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad to the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Amend the bill as follows :

Strike out all after the word "confirmed" in said act, and insert the following :

"Section 2. Said Manchester & Lawrence Railroad may procure the assent to such lease of all its stockholders who have not assented to it by voting to approve the same at the stockholders' meeting called to act thereon, or otherwise ; and unless all its stockholders shall have assented thereto within thirty days after the passage of this act, said corporation shall apply by petition to the railroad commissioners, setting out the facts, and names and residences of all stockholders who have not thus assented, so far as the same are known to it, and praying for notice to such non-assenting stockholders, and that the entire value of their stock and the damage to their property as stockholders in such corporation by said lease and the carrying out of its provisions may be ascertained and determined ; and the value of the stock and the damage to the stock and property shall each be determined separately. The commissioners shall thereupon order such notice as they may deem proper, either by publication or otherwise, to all such non-assenting stockholders, and every such stockholder may, within three months from the time such notice is given, answer the petition, and claim damages as aforesaid. The commissioners shall thereupon ascertain and determine the entire value of the stock of each such non-assenting stockholder, and the damage caused and to be caused thereto by said lease, the entire value to be appraised as though such lease had not been made. If said corporation or stockholder is dissatisfied with the award of the commissioners, it or he may, within thirty days after the same is made, apply by petition to the supreme court in the county in which he resides, if he resides in the State, and if he does not reside in the State, in the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business, for a trial by jury ; and a trial shall thereupon be had at the bar of the court, and like proceedings had thereon, with the same effect, as are provided by law in case of appeal from the award of damages for land taken for railroad purposes.

"Sect. 3. Any stockholder who shall not have assented to such lease, either by voting to approve the same at the stockholders' meeting called to act thereon, or otherwise, may, within two years from the passage of this act, apply by petition to the railroad commissioners, setting out the facts, and praying that the entire value of his stock and the damage to his property as such stockholder by said lease and the carrying out of its provisions may be ascertained and determined. The commissioners shall thereupon order notice to the corporation, and ascertain and determine the entire value of the stock of such stockholder, as though such lease had not been made, and the damage caused or to be caused thereto by said lease. If said corporation or stockholder is dissatisfied with the award of the commissioners, it or he may, within thirty days after the same is made, apply by petition to the supreme court in the county in which he resides, if he resides in the State, or, if he does not reside in the State, in the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business, for a trial by jury, and a trial shall thereupon be had at the bar of the court, and like proceedings had thereon, with the same effect, as are provided by law in case of appeal from the award of damages for land taken for railroad purposes.

“Sect. 4. The commissioners, or the court in which any such petition is pending, shall, upon application of any non-assenting stockholder, require the corporation to give security for the payment of the damage to his stock, or the value thereof, if transferred by him as hereinafter provided, as fixed and determined upon said petition, or by verdict of a jury, and costs, and if at any time the security appears to the commissioners or court to have become insufficient, upon application of such stockholder the corporation shall be required to give further security to the satisfaction of the commissioners or court, and the commissioners or court may provide in such order that all right or authority of the lessee to the use and possession of the leased property shall be suspended until the security required is given.

“Sect. 5. When the value of the stock of any dissenting stockholder and the damage thereto have been ascertained and determined in the manner hereinbefore provided, such stockholder may, if he shall so elect, within thirty days thereafter, transfer his stock to the corporation, and shall thereupon be paid the value thereof as thus ascertained and determined, and the corporation may hold and dispose of the stock as its own property ; and if he shall not thus elect, he shall be paid by the corporation the damages to his stock and property as thus ascertained and determined, such payment in either case to be with costs taxed as in proceedings to recover damages for land taken for railroad purposes.

“Sect. 6. If the residence of any stockholder who does not assent to such lease, or appear to answer to such petition, is unknown, or he is a minor, or insane, and has no guardian, or is not resident in the State, the commissioners or the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for such person, and, if it is necessary for the security of such stockholder, may order the corporation to give a bond to the state treasurer for the benefit of such stockholder, to secure the payment of all damages which may be awarded to such stockholder, or to pay the value of his stock if he shall elect to receive the same, and when the damages to his stock and property are ascertained and determined in the manner herein provided, the same shall be paid to the state treasurer for the use of such stockholder.

“Sect. 7. If the corporation does not pay the stockholder upon request the damages awarded by the commissioners, or the value of his stock as determined by them, or pay such damages or value as awarded and determined by a jury in case of an appeal from the award and determination of the commissioners within thirty days after written request by the stockholder, all the right and authority of the lessee under such lease to the use of the leased railroad and property shall be suspended until such payment is made.

“Sect. 8. All the provisions of the preceding sections with reference to the corporation, the road, franchise, and property leased, so far as the same may relate to compensation to dissenting stockholders therein, shall apply to the corporation, the road, franchise, and property of the lessee corporation, and the dissenting stockholders therein, if the same shall be legally necessary.

“Sect. 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect on its passage.”

It was unanimously agreed that the House concur with the Senate amendment.

EZRA S. STEARNS,
For the Committee.

The following message was received from the House of Representatives by their clerk :

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives concur with the Honorable Senate in the passage of the following entitled Senate bill with amendments, in the passage of which amendments they ask the concurrence of the honorable Senate :

An act to authorize the Boston & Maine Railroad to guarantee a lease of the Northern Railroad.

Amend the title of the bill so as to read as follows :

"An act to authorize the lease of the Northern Railroad."

Amend the first section of the bill so as to read as follows :

"Section 1. The Northern Railroad may lease its road, property, and franchise to the Boston & Lowell Railroad Corporation or to the Boston & Maine Railroad ; and if such lease is made to the former corporation, the Boston & Maine Railroad may guarantee, assume, and perform the covenants and agreements thereof. But, if any lease is lawfully made under this act, the rates of fare and freight as they existed on the first day of October, 1887, on the Northern Railroad, shall not be increased without the consent of the legislature ; and if any such lease is made for a time exceeding thirty years, the legislature may terminate the same at the end of thirty years from its execution, if the public good requires it."

Add the following as sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of the bill :

"Section 2. The Northern Railroad may procure the assent to such a lease of all its stockholders who do not assent thereto by voting to approve the same at the stockholders' meeting called to act thereon, or otherwise, and unless all its stockholders shall have assented thereto within thirty days after said meeting, the corporation shall apply by petition to the railroad commissioners, setting out the facts, and names and residences of all stockholders who have not thus assented, so far as the same are known to it, and praying for notice to such non-assenting stockholders, and that the entire value of their stock and the damage to their property as stockholders in such corporation, by said lease and the carrying out of its provisions, may be ascertained and determined; and the value of the stock and the damage to the stock and property shall each be determined separately. The commissioners shall thereupon order such notice as they may deem proper, either by publication or otherwise, to all such non-assenting stockholders, and every such stockholder may, within three months from the time such notice is given, answer the petition, and claim damages as aforesaid. The commissioners shall thereupon ascertain and determine the entire value of the stock of each such non-assenting stockholder, and the damage caused and to be caused thereto by said lease, the entire value to be appraised as though such lease had not been made. If said corporation or stockholder is dissatisfied with the award of the commissioners, it or he may, within thirty days after the same is made, apply by petition to the supreme court in the county in which he resides, if he resides in the State, and if he does not reside in the State, in the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business, for a trial by jury; and a trial shall thereupon be had at the bar of the court, and like proceedings had thereon, with the same effect, as are provided by law in case of appeal from the award of damages for land taken for railroad purposes. Any stockholder who shall not have assented to such lease, either by voting to approve the same at the stockholders' meeting called to act thereon, or otherwise, may, within two years from the date of such meeting, apply by petition to the railroad commissioners, setting out the facts, and praying that the entire value of his stock, and the damage to his property as such stockholder by said lease, and the carrying out of its provisions may be ascertained and determined. The commissioners shall thereupon order notice to the corporation, and ascertain and determine the entire value of the stock of such stockholder, as though such lease had not been made, and the damage caused or to be caused thereto by said lease. If said corporation or stockholder is dissatisfied with the award of the commissioners, it or he may, within thirty days after the same is made, apply by petition to the supreme court in the county in which he resides, if he resides in the State, or if he does not reside in the State, in the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business, for a trial by jury; and a trial shall thereupon be had at the bar of the court, and like proceedings had thereon with the same effect as are provided by law in case of appeal from the award of damages for land taken for railroad purposes.

“Sect. 3. The commissioners, or the court in which any such petition is pending, shall, upon application of any non-assenting stockholder, require the corporation to give security for the payment of the damage to his stock, or the value thereof, if transferred by him as hereinafter provided, as fixed and determined upon said petition, or by verdict of a jury, and costs, and if at any time the security appears to the commissioners or court to have become insufficient, upon application of such stockholder the corporation shall be required to give further security to the satisfaction of the commissioners or court, and the commissioners or court may provide in such order that all right or authority of the lessee to the use and possession of the leased property shall be suspended until the security required is given.

“Sect. 4. When the value of the stock of any dissenting stockholder and the damage thereto have been ascertained and determined in the manner hereinbefore provided, such stockholder may, if he shall so elect, within thirty days thereafter, transfer his stock to the corporation, and shall thereupon be paid the value thereof as thus ascertained and determined, and the corporation may hold and dispose of the stock as its own property; and if he shall not thus elect, he shall be paid by the corporation the damages to his stock and property, as thus ascertained and determined, such payment in either case to be with costs taxed, as in proceedings to recover damages for land taken for railroad purposes.

“Sect. 5. If the residence of any stockholder who does not assent to such lease, or appear in answer to such petition, is unknown, or he is a minor, or insane, and has no guardian, or is not resident in the State, the commissioners or the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for such person, and, if it is necessary for the security of such stockholder, may order the corporation to give a bond to the state treasurer for the benefit of such stockholder, to secure the payment of all damages which may be awarded to such stockholder, or to pay the value of his stock if he shall elect to receive the same, and when the damages to his stock and property are ascertained and determined in the manner herein provided, the same shall be paid to the State treasurer for the use of such stockholder.

“Sect. 6. If the corporation does not pay the stockholder upon request the damages awarded by the commissioners, or the value of his stock as determined by them, or pay such damages or value as awarded and determined by a jury in case of an appeal from the award and determination of the commissioners within thirty days after written request by the stockholder, all the right and authority of the lessee under such lease to the use of the leased railroad and property shall be suspended until such payment is made.

“Sect. 7. All the provisions of the preceding sections with reference to the corporation, the road, franchise, and property leased, so far as the same may relate to compensation to dissenting stockholders therein, shall apply to the corporation, the road, franchise, and property of the lessee corporation and the dissenting stockholders therein, if the same shall be legally necessary.”

Strike out section 2 of the bill, and insert the following as section 8:

“Sect. 8. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect upon its passage.”

AFTERNOON.

The following entitled House bill was read a third time and passed :

An act to amend section 15 of chapter 90 of the General Laws, relating to contracts of town or school districts with academy.

The following message was received from His Excellency the Governor, by the Hon Ai B. Thompson, Secretary of State :

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

CONCORD, November 1, 1887.

To the Honorable Senate :

I herewith return, without my signature, Senate bill No. 91, entitled "An act to authorize a lease of the Northern Railroad."

The substance of this bill was contained in and was an important part of House bill No. 28, known as the "Hazen bill," and which was returned to the House on the 18th of October without the Executive signature, by reason of corrupt methods and attempted bribery in promoting its passage. I enclose herewith a copy of my communication in returning that bill to the House. The same reasons that were given for disapproving that bill, as a whole, apply with equal force to the parts that are contested by the parties interested ; otherwise, all the provisions of the Hazen bill might become laws at this session by re-enacting them one by one, and thus the objections to the whole bill be evaded and rendered of no effect. As the substance of this bill was one of the most earnestly contested parts of the Hazen bill, I cannot consistently give it my approval.

In addition to the foregoing, which to my mind are entirely sufficient reasons for the executive disapproval, there are other important reasons which lead me to withhold my assent from the bill, among which are the following: because neither the Boston & Maine nor the Boston & Lowell railroads have a practical physical connection with the Northern Railroad, but are both separated therefrom by the Concord Railroad, in which it is admitted by all parties, the State has a large interest, and the practical effect of the proposed legislation would, in my judgment seriously affect the interest of the State in that road ; by such action the State would be giving the corporations, in which it has no direct pecuniary interest, the power to endanger the property of the State in another corporation in which it has a large pecuniary interest.

It is a question of the gravest importance to the people of this State whether its railroad systems shall be kept apart and distinct, or whether they shall practically all be merged into one great corporation, with its management centralized in another State. We are not here to consider primarily the interests of the Concord Railroad or that of the Boston & Maine Railroad, but what is for the best interest of the State, not only for the present but also for the future. When the general railroad law was passed in 1883, it was not supposed that the outcome would be a general consolidation; or, it is safe to say, it would never have become a law.

In seeking to lease the Northern and the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroads, the Boston & Lowell or the Boston & Maine, as its guarantors, have unmistakably in view the final absorption of the whole Concord system, and it is a question whether such a consummation is to be desired, and will be of ultimate benefit to the State.

CHARLES H. SAWYER, Governor.

CONCORD, October 18, 1887.

To the House of Representatives :

I hereby return House bill No. 28, entitled "An act in amendment of chapter 100 of the Laws of 1883, entitled 'An act providing for the establishment of railroad corporations by general law,' " without my signature.

It is with great regret that I feel called upon to exercise the power given to the executive by the constitution and withhold my approval from a measure which has passed both branches of the Legislature by decided majorities, after a thorough and able discussion, covering a period of nearly four months, and prolonging the session far beyond the usual limits, at great expense to the State.

Without entering upon the intrinsic merits of the measure to express any opinion upon a question of such vital importance to the State, and upon which the people may wish to be heard, I am moved to object to the bill for the reason that corrupt methods have been extensively used for the purpose of promoting its passage. The two powerful railroad corporations, which have antagonized each other in the contest, have had in attendance a paid lobby of unprecedented magnitude, and, as a consequence, the representatives have been persistently followed and interfered with in the free performance of their legislative duties.

The widespread rumors and scandalous tales of bribery and corruption which have been freely current during the progress of the contest, finally materialized through charges preferred in the Senate, and also in the House, after the passage of the bill. By the courtesy of the chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House, upon my request, I have received the official records of the testimony thus far taken by that committee in their investigation of the charges. The provision of the Constitution limiting the time within which the executive veto may be interposed, together with the probable early adjournment of the Legislature, forces me to take action upon the measure without waiting for the completion of the investigation and report of the committee.

The evidence thus far obtained is, in my opinion, sufficient to justify the action here taken. While I am glad to be able to say that no evidence has yet been produced to show that any member of the legislature has been unfaithful to his trust and oath of office, yet to my mind it is conclusively shown that there have been deliberate and systematic attempts at wholesale bribery of the servants of the people in this legislature.

It matters not that both of the parties are probably equally guilty. The fact that this bill, if it should become a law, would go on to the statute book, carrying with it the suspicion that it had been fraudulently enacted, is sufficient reason why it, and all legislation similarly effected, should be condemned.

The danger of permitting the use of such methods as have been here employed, is too obvious to require extended comment, and the most effectual way to check such practices is to have it understood that no bill attempted to be passed by such means can become a law.

When the promoters of a measure see fit to offer bribes to members, they cannot be allowed to excuse themselves on the ground that their offers were not accepted. If it comes to be understood that unsuccessful attempts of this nature will not imperil the passage of a bill, such offers will become much more frequent. If the offer is accepted, neither party will be likely to disclose the fact. If it is rejected, it is in this view to be considered as of no consequence, and hence, no harm would be done to the prospects of the bill.

The bare statement of such a doctrine is its best answer. In degree, as these corrupt practices are allowed to pass unnoticed, the moral sense of not only the legislators but also of the people will become dulled to their enormity, and, in the end, make government a farce and an object of contempt.

As the honor of the individual should be above price, so in a larger sense should the honor of the State be jealously guarded. Being strongly impressed that the honor and good name of the State and its legislature is involved in countenancing the methods that have been practised to secure the passage of this measure, and that all other considerations should be set aside, and feeling that my duty is plain, I veto the bill.

CHARLES H. SAWYER, Governor.

The question being stated,

Will the Senate, upon reconsideration, pass the bill, notwithstanding the objections of the governor thereto?

Senator Hersey moved that the message, together with the bill, be laid upon the table.

The question being stated,

Shall the message, together with the bill, be laid upon the table?

(Discussion ensued.)

2. Amend section 4 of the bill by prefixing to said section 4 the words "on and after January 1, 1888."

3. Strike out the last two sections of the bill, and insert the following sections, viz. :

"Section 6. In any case when a lease shall hereafter be made by a railroad corporation of its railroad property and franchise, to any other railroad corporation, agreeably to the laws of the State, the treasurer of each corporation shall forthwith send written notice thereof by mail, to all stockholders not present or represented at the stockholders' meeting at which such lease is approved ; and any stockholder, of either corporation, who has not assented thereto, may, within two years after possession is taken by the lessee, apply by petition to the supreme court in any county, in term time, or to any justice thereof in vacation asking that the damage to his property thereby be assessed and determined, and the court or such justice shall refer the petition to the railroad commissioners, who shall, after due notice, hear the parties, and assess and determine such damages and return their award to the court, who shall make and enforce such orders as may be necessary to carry the same into effect, and to secure to such stockholders the payment of any damage so awarded, and costs. If the stockholder or corporation is dissatisfied with such award, he or it may elect to have a trial by jury, as to such damage, and a jury trial shall be had thereon, in the same manner as other civil cases are tried. The court or the justice to whom such petition is made, shall make and enforce any orders necessary to secure to such stockholder the payment of any damage thus awarded by the commissioner or a jury, and the right of the lessee to the use and possession of the leased railroad, property, and franchise shall be suspended until such order is performed, and the court may make and enforce such orders as to costs in said proceedings as justice and equity may require.

“Sect. 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect upon its passage, but the Legislature may alter, amend, or repeal the same whenever the public good may require.”

And with the following resolution :

Resolved, That the bill so amended ought to pass.

A minority of the Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred House bill No. 406, entitled “An act regulating freights and fares on railroads,” having considered the same, dissent from the views entertained by the majority, and recommend that the bill be passed without amendment.

Thirteen senators voted in the affirmative, and ten senators voted in the negative.

The affirmative prevailed, and the concurrent resolution was laid upon the table and made the special order for Saturday, November 5, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

On motion of Senator Gilman, the Senate took a recess until 9 o'clock this evening.

Upon re-assembling,

On motion of Senator Morrison, the Senate took a recess until 9.30 o'clock this evening.

Upon re-assembling,

Senator Nealley offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee on Railroads of the Senate be instructed to report at once, House joint resolution No. 58, in relation to the interests of the State in the Concord and Boston & Maine railroad corporations.

On motion of Senator Carr, the Senate took a recess until 10 o'clock this evening.

Upon re-assembling,

(Senator Stearns in the chair.)

Senator Pitman offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Senate appreciates the ability, courtesy, zeal, and impartiality with which the president, Hon. Frank

D. Currier has presided over its deliberations during the present session ; that it recognizes its obligation to him for so harmoniously, faithfully, and successfully conducting the same, and extends to him its grateful and hearty thanks therefor, and the best wishes of this body, collectively, and of its individual members, for his future happiness and prosperity.

On motion of Senator French, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The president responded as follows :

“ For the generous words of this resolution, and of the senators who have spoken upon it, you have my sincere thanks, but I owe you my thanks for much more than this. By your never-failing courtesy and kindness you have made the duty of presiding over this honorable body a constant pleasure. Whatever the weather has been elsewhere, you have made it all sunshine for me here. During the whole of this long session I have not had an unpleasant moment. There was no return that I could make to you, except to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties which by your favor I was called upon to perform. That, to the best of my ability, I have tried to do, and if I have failed the fault is my own, for you have always assisted me and endeavored to make my duties light. We have had a session long beyond all precedent, I might almost say beyond all reason, but with that this body had nothing to do. The Senate has disposed of its business promptly, and no responsibility for the unusual length of the session can attach to it. I have never seen a time since we came here when a large majority of the Senate were not willing and anxious to stay here Fridays, if there was any duty they could perform, but our business was all done and we were receiving nothing from the other house. We had absolutely nothing to do if we staid. The hour is late, and I will not detain you longer. As we leave this chamber to-morrow, I trust that all traces of bitterness that may have been begotten by differences of opinion upon questions of legislation may be dissipated, and that we shall take to our homes nothing but the kindest feelings for each other. An honest difference of opinion is not inconsistent with the firmest friendship. May the future have nothing but happiness and prosperity for you all, and may your associates in business and politics treat you with the same kindness you have shown me."

Senator Rollins offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a vote of thanks of this Senate be and is hereby extended to Ira A. Chase, clerk, Charles J. Hamblett, assistant clerk, Edward H. Wason, sergeant-at-arms, and James M. Adams, messenger, for the able and courteous manner in which they have filled the various positions with which they have been intrusted during the present session of the Legislature, now about to be brought to a close, thereby showing our appreciation of their efforts and willingness at all times to assist, in every way possible, the transaction of the business that has been before this honorable body, and in this hour of separation we extend to them our best wishes for their future prosperity in whatever stations of life they may from time to time be called upon to fill.

On motion of Senator Morrison, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Senator Worcester, for the Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred House joint resolution No. 58, in relation to the interests of the State in the Concord and Boston & Maine railroad corporations, having considered the same, reported the same without recommendation.

The report was accepted.

The question being stated,

Shall the joint resolution be read a third time?

Resolved, That the joint resolution ought to pass.

The report was accepted, and, on motion of Senator Stearns, the rules were so far suspended that the joint resolution was read a third time and passed.

Senator Hersey moved that the message of His Excellency the Governor upon Senate bill No. 91, authorizing a lease of the Northern Railroad, together with the bill itself, be taken from the table and considered.

The motion prevailed.

The question being stated,

Will the Senate, upon reconsideration, pass the bill, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor thereto ?

The president announced that upon this question the yeas and nays would be taken, in conformity to the requirements of the Constitution thereupon.

The clerk proceeded to call the roll.

The following senators voted in the affirmative :

Senators Paine, Currier, French, Carr, Richards, Truesdell, Gerrish, Looney, Hersey, Bailey, Morrison, Jenness, and Langdon.

The following senators voted in the negative :

Senators Pitman, Rollins, George, Worcester, Sawyer, Blunt, Eastman, Gilman, and Nealley.

Thirteen senators voted in the affirmative, and nine senators voted in the negative.

And less than two thirds of the senators present and voting having voted in the affirmative, the Senate refused to pass the bill upon reconsideration.

The Committee of Conference upon the non-concurrence of the House of Representatives in the Senate amendments to the bill entitled "An act to modify the trustee process," made the following report :

The Committee of Conference on the part of the honorable Senate have met the committee on the part of the House as to the amendment proposed by the Senate to the act to modify the trustee law, and have attended to their duty and respectfully submit the following report :

Your committee are unable to agree with said Conference Committee of the House, and ask to be discharged from further consideration of the matter.

J. E. FRENCH,
For the Conferrees of the Senate.

The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The following message was received from the House of Representatives by their clerk :

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives have refused to concur with the honorable Senate in the passage of their amendment to the following House joint resolution :

Joint resolution in favor of Stevens & Duncklee,

And ask for a Committee of Conference on the same, and have appointed as members of such committee on the part of the House, Messrs. Morrill of Concord, Clark of Manchester, and Todd of Atkinson.

The Senate granted the request of the House of Representatives for a Committee of Conference upon the non-concurrence of the House of Representatives in the passage of the Senate amendment to House joint resolution No. 61, in favor of Stevens & Duncklee.

And the president appointed as members of such committee on the part of the Senate, Senators French, Nealley, and Paine.

(Senator Stearns in the chair.)

The following message was received from the House of Representatives by their clerk :

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives concur with the honorable Senate in the passage of the following joint resolution :

An act providing for the preservation of public documents.

The House of Representatives deem it inexpedient to legislate upon the following entitled bill, sent down from the honorable Senate :

An act to secure action by towns in regard to chapter 46 of Pamphlet Laws of 1883, entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the common schools."

The following report from the Committee of Conference upon the non-concurrence of the House of Representatives in the passage of the Senate amendment to House joint resolution No. 61, in favor of Stevens & Duncklee, was accepted :

The Committee of Conference on the part of the honorable Senate have met the Committee of Conference on the part of the House as to the amendment proposed by the Senate to the "Joint resolution in favor of Stevens & Duncklee," and have attended to their duty, and respectfully submit the following report :

The Committee of Conference, on the part of both houses, were unanimous in adherence to the said amendment, whereupon the action of the Senate in adhering to the same is sustained.

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives concur with the honorable Senate in the passage of their amendment to the following joint resolution :

Joint resolution in favor of Stevens & Duncklee.

(The president in the chair.)

The following message was received from the House of Representatives by their clerk :

Mr. President :

The House of Representatives have passed the following resolution :

Resolved, That a committee of one member from each county be appointed by the House, with such as the Senate may join, to wait upon His Excellency the Governor, and inform him that the Legislature have completed the business of the session, and are ready to receive any communication he may see fit to make, and have appointed, on the part of the House, as members of such committee to wait upon His Excellency the Governor, Messrs. S. T. Page of Haverhill, Bell of Exeter, Goodwin of Dover, Bean of Belmont, Clark of Brookfield, Marden of Concord, O'Connor of Manchester, Livingston of Jaffrey, Forehand of Croydon, and Marble of Gorham.

The Senate concurred with the House of Representatives in the passage of the foregoing resolution.

The president appointed, as members of such committee on the part of the Senate, Senators Gilman, Stearns, and Carr.

The following report from the Committee on Engrossed Bills was accepted and adopted :

SENATE, November 5, 1887.

The Committee on Engrossed Bills report that they have carefully examined and found correctly engrossed, a joint resolution in favor of Stevens & Duncklee and B. F. Methven.

CHARLES H. HERSEY,
For the Committee.

Senator Gilman, for the joint select committee appointed to wait upon His Excellency the Governor and inform him that the Legislature have completed the business of the session, and are ready to receive any communication that he may be pleased to make, reported that they had attended to their duty, and had been informed by His Excellency that he would, in person, make a communication to the Legislature forthwith.

The report was accepted.

On motion of the same senator, the Senate took a recess for fifteen minutes, until 9.55 o'clock this morning.

Upon re-assembling,

His Excellency, Hon. Charles H. Sawyer, attended by the Honorable council, then appeared and made the following communication to the Senate:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

CONCORD, November 5, 1887.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives :

I have signed all of the acts and resolutions that have been presented to me for my approval and signature, with the following exceptions :

House bill No. 153 became a law without the executive signature.

House bill No. 28, Senate bill No. 91, House bill No. 406, Senate bill No. 78, House bill No. 153 were returned to the respective houses in which they originated without the executive signature and with reasons for disapproval.

Of the above, Senate bill No. 78 and House bill No. 153 were afterwards re-enacted, with corrections and amendments, and received the executive approval. I have not signed Senate bill No. 97.

Having been informed by a joint committee of both branches of the Legislature that you have finished the business before you, and are now ready to be adjourned, I do, by the authority vested in me, hereby adjourn the Legislature to the last Wednesday in May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

CHARLES H. SAWYER, Governor.

And thereupon the president, in accordance with the proclamation of His Excellency the Governor, and by virtue of the authority vested in him, declared the Senate adjourned to the last Wednesday in May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

IRA A. CHASE, Clerk.
